Dance-themed K-8 Gabriella Charter School, looking for ways to enhance the colorful costumes that characterize the school's annual dance recitals, has turned to Los Angeles High School for the Arts (LAHSA) students for costume design.

In an exciting collaboration, LAHSA theater students are creating hip hop style pants and hoodies inspired by astronaut outfits for the charter school's 8th grade girls. All 436 K-9 charter students will dance on-stage as part of the school's May 20 performances.
