Monday, June 13th and Tuesday, June 14th are designed for the BSAP Site Team members (PSA, PSW, RJ Teachers, SCA, and Counselor) to come, engage, and plan using the school's data and surveys. The BSAP Site Team will reflect on the 2021-2022 school year and identify strengths and areas of growth. BSAP Teams will have the opportunity to plan together and prepare for the new school year.	Thursday, June 16th and Friday, June 17th, BSAP is offering teachers optional time to engage in a planning institute. During the planning, teachers will deepen their knowledge of Dr. Gholdy Muhammad's pursuits (Identity, Intellect, Skill, Criticality, and Joy) and write unit plan(s) with a deeper understanding of each pursuit. Instructional components of rigor, standards aligned experiences and incorporating inquiry will also be addressed. Teachers will complete a culturally responsive unit to implement in the 2022 - 2023 school year. There is a cap of 240 participants (waitlist formed).	Conference dates are detailed below: Tuesday, June 21, 2022 and Wednesday, June 22nd are designed for the BSAP faculty, and teachers, parents and students. During our time together we will learn and celebrate the work of the Black Student Achievement Plan . During the conference we will learn from experts in the field, view cultural performances, and spotlight our Black student voices.
