Dear Los Angeles Unified Family,

The Los Angeles Unified School District's commitment to our students has never been stronger. Our teachers, administrators, and classified staff have risen to the challenges brought by COVID-19 with resilience and a relentless focus on the holistic needs of our students and families. Now, as we undertake recovery from the pandemic, our responsibility to provide an excellent public education for every student couldn't be more critical. With such a charge before us, I am proud as your Board President to share the Los Angeles Unified 2022-26 Strategic Plan, which will allow us to build on our success towards becoming an exceptional public school system.

In 2021, the Board of Education set out four goals to guide our school district's work. Those goals include boosting college and career readiness, improving literacy and numeracy, and deepening socio-emotional learning and student well-being. While we are a district of continuous improvement in all areas, the Board's established priorities allow us to accelerate success in key areas that will most positively affect our students in school and in life. The strategic plan is the next step to turn those ambitious goals into action at every level of our school district, from classrooms to our central office.

I want to thank our students, families, educators, and staff for your input into the 100-Day Plan and the subsequent strategic planning process. Your feedback has informed the pillars, strategies, and metrics you see in the following pages. I also thank the entire Board, the Superintendent, and his team for the work to set the vision for our school district and develop the 2022-2026 Strategic Plan. With the approval of the strategic plan, now the hard work begins to turn our goals into reality. Working together, I know we can strengthen public education in Los Angeles and ensure we are meeting all the needs of our students, families, and communities.

Kelly Gonez

President

Los Angeles Unified Board of Education

Dear Los Angeles Unified Family,

It is my great honor to share our 2022–26 Strategic Plan, illustrating a vibrant picture of success for Los Angeles Unified. This plan establishes a clear and inspiring vision for the future – not only for the future of our district over the next four years, but for the future of all of our students on their journey forward as lifelong learners.

It has been an incredible privilege for me to have spent the last few months listening to and learning from you. Through school visits, conversations with community members, students, and our workforce, small group discussions, one-on-one dialogues and more, I have come to better understand not only the opportunities and challenges we face, but also the ways in which we can all come together to deliver a world-class education for our students.

During my first 100 days, we engaged in an ambitious process to learn from our community, assess the status and needs of our schools, communicate to build stronger relationships with stakeholders in our district and act quickly to put in place programs and systems to better serve our students, families, and employees. We have reinforced what transformative goals we can achieve together as a coherent, caring, and courageous school community, and it is in that same spirit that this plan has been developed.

Our Strategic Plan is designed to leverage the important work the District has been leading and build upon that work in bold and innovative ways so we may be even more responsive to the needs of our students and school community. We have been extremely thoughtful and strategic in our approach, carefully considering the drivers we think will be most impactful to improve student achievement and close opportunity gaps. We must now focus our efforts intently on the things that our research, data, and common sense tell us will set our students on a path of joy and success.

I am proud of the commitments we have outlined in this plan, but the real value of this work lies in its implementation – and it is only together that we will be able to truly create meaningful change for our students. We have an amazing workforce of educators, school leaders, and staff ready to bring this plan to life in our classrooms, and I am confident that with the partnership of our entire Los Angeles Unified community, we can guarantee our students will graduate from our schools ready for the world.

Sincerely,
Alberto M. Carvalho
Superintendent

READY FOR THE WORLD

For the next four years, Los Angeles Unified will focus on a singular goal: ensure ALL our students graduate READY FOR THE WORLD – to thrive in college, career, and life. This Strategic Plan represents a promise to our entire Los Angeles Unified community that we will achieve this goal.

With this plan, we are establishing a new, inspiring vision on how we can improve student achievement and close opportunity gaps. We believe that by outlining a singular goal, and a vision for achieving this goal, we can ensure that everyone who is a part of Los Angeles Unified will be able to support and uplift our district together.

Our singular goal: ensure ALL our students graduate READY FOR THE WORLD – to thrive in college, career, and life

We acknowledge that the last two years have been difficult for our students, staff, and families – the COVID-19 pandemic has challenged us in many ways and forced us to rethink how we provide for our students.

And while we will continue to respond to the impact of a pandemic still present in our communities, this plan will allow us to elevate the ways in which we have adapted positively to serve our students and highlight the promising practices we will institute to carry us forward. We will capture the urgency of our current moment and work together to transform into a stronger, more inclusive, and more responsive district.

Through a robust listening and engagement effort capturing diverse voices from across the District, we have established a shared vision of what student success looks like and what being ready for the world means; this plan will serve as a roadmap outlining all of the steps we will take to realize this vision. This plan is designed to inform actions that can be taken at the school site, through the district office, and in our communities to drive student success and move toward our singular goal, creating alignment across the District on the ways we can best serve our students and our school communities.

Being ready for the world means...

Being ready for the world means many things but, first and foremost, it means that all students graduate from our district fully prepared and inspired to thrive in college, career, and their lives beyond our classroom walls. We believe that each and every student is capable of making a lasting and positive impact on the world, and that it is the District's job to help them realize their potential. Being ready for the world means our students are advocates for themselves and others, and that they are open-minded, adaptable, and effective communicators. Being ready for the world means our students will serve as the next generation of changemakers and problem solvers: artists, pioneers, scientists, surgeons, activists, and politicians. Being ready for the world means our students will be global citizens – mindful of others' perspectives, educated about the world around them, and aware of how they can meaningfully contribute to it. Being ready for the world means our students will graduate with the skills and knowledge they need to live out their dreams.

Being ready for the world means our students will serve as the next generation of changemakers and problem solvers: artists, pioneers, scientists, surgeons, activists, and politicians.

Core Beliefs

We also believe it is not just enough for our students to be ready for the world – we, as a district and representatives of a larger global community, must also ensure that we are ready for our students. Each student arrives with a unique and diverse range of strengths, skills, and perspectives that we must honor and uplift. We must guarantee that our systems – not just within Los Angeles Unified, but beyond – evolve and adapt to create the conditions for our exceptional students to thrive, and we are ready to lead that change by example.

Each student arrives with a unique and diverse range of strengths, skills, and perspectives that we must honor and uplift.

When our students ask, “Are you ready for me?” we all must be able to answer, “Yes we are” – not just to some students, but to every single one of our incredible young scholars. This commitment is embodied in our Core Beliefs, which serve as the foundation for everything we do and represent the things we hold true so that we may be a model of what an exemplary education institution looks like.

EQUITY

We believe we must unapologetically call out and close the persistent opportunity gaps that disproportionately impact Black, Latinx, foster, unhoused, LGBTQIA+, immigrant, and other historically underserved communities. We must disrupt the generational, systemic manifestations of discrimination, racism, and bigotry affecting our schools.

We will actively identify and amplify the successes of our schools that eliminate inequities. We will strategically allocate resources to our students and families to ensure that students are celebrated and supported.

COLLABORATION

We believe we exist to serve the students and families of Los Angeles Unified, and we acknowledge the many voices who have a vested interest in the success of Los Angeles Unified. Our decisions, policies, and programs are designed with learners at the center.

All actions are informed by listening and learning from the community through open dialogue to create authentic partnership opportunities so that our entire extended community may contribute toward student success.

EXCELLENCE

We believe the communities served by Los Angeles Unified deserve the most exemplary education that prepares all students to achieve postsecondary excellence. For our community, we must deliver schools and an entire system that meets the promise of all of our unique students.

District Goals

OUR FOUR POWERFUL GOALS

In June 2021, the Board of Education approved a set of four powerful goals outlining the student outcomes we expect to see by 2026. These goals establish a philosophy on the primary areas of success around which we must organize – postsecondary preparedness, literacy, numeracy, and social-emotional wellness – to ensure our students are ready for the world. Most importantly, these goals serve to build greater alignment on how to best meet the needs of our students. The 2022–26 Strategic Plan has been built to help us maintain a singular focus on achieving these goals, giving us clear direction for collective planning and for every action we take. While much of the plan outlines specific approaches to directly influence these goals through high-quality instructional programming, other elements focus on ways to create and uphold the necessary conditions to allow our students to fully experience that high-quality instructional programming.

Postsecondary

70%

The percentage of students in a graduating 9th–12th grade cohort demonstrating college and career readiness with a “C” or better on University of California/California State University A–G approved courses will increase to 70% by June 2026.

Literacy

+30_{pts}

In order to build a strong foundation for literacy, move third-grade students, on average, 30 points closer to proficiency on Smarter Balanced Assessment English Language Arts/Literacy from 2022 to 2026.

Numeracy

+40_{pts}

In order to improve Algebra I pass rates, move students, on average, 40 points closer to proficiency on Smarter Balanced Assessment Mathematics from 2022 to 2026 in Grades 3–5 and 6–8.

Social-
Emotional/
Wellness

+8%

At each school level, students in elementary, middle school, and high school will demonstrate growth of 8% in each of the social-emotional learning (SEL) competencies of growth mindset, self-efficacy, self-management, and social awareness, by June 2026 as preliminarily measured by the School Experience Survey with full transition to a portfolio rubric to be implemented by the 2023–24 school year.

DISTRICT GOALS: WHERE WE ARE

The targets we set for 2026 were informed by our students' performance over the last several years, and by where we think our students should be to ensure success in college, career, and beyond. Based on this data, we believe these targets are ambitious but achievable goals for all Los Angeles Unified students.

Goal 1: Postsecondary

The percentage of students in a graduating 9th–12th grade cohort demonstrating college and career readiness with a “C” or better on University of California/California State University A–G approved courses will increase to 70% by June 2026. Students in targeted student groups will demonstrate growth of 25% over this time based on 2021–22 baseline data.

Planning Process

DEVELOPING THE STRATEGIC PLAN

To develop the 2022–26 Strategic Plan, we used our District Goals as a foundation that will drive our work forward, considering where our students are currently to determine where we want to go as a district. We then engaged more than 20,000 people from our wide range of stakeholders to further establish the ways we can align our activities to directly and coherently respond to the needs of our communities based on What We Heard.

Between February and June 2022, we met with nearly 6,000 stakeholders through a variety of listening and learning sessions, totaling more than 100 face-to-face or virtual meetings. The broad range of stakeholders included parents and students across grade levels from every Local District and Board District; employees and labor partners; educational providers; civic partners; local, state and federally elected officials; business, community, faith-based, and philanthropic partners; and areas of underserved student groups. Online surveys also resulted in over 14,000 participants sharing 237,000 contributions of ideas and feedback. These sessions allowed us to gauge perceptions of the challenges, opportunities, and potential solutions to close opportunity gaps and increase student success.

These processes are continuous, allowing us to receive guidance from all our partners on our planning, share versions of our plan informed by this guidance, and solicit even more feedback to ensure we are accurately capturing the right ways to serve our district over the next four years.

What We Heard

Several important themes emerged throughout our engagement process.

Across Los Angeles Unified, we all want:

Our Mission and Vision

After listening to our community and holding up our District Goals as our primary drivers, we have developed the following Mission, Vision, and Theory of Action to outline, respectively, why we do what we do, where we want to go, and how we believe we will get there.

Mission

Realizing excellence for all students by providing the unique, rigorous, and culturally relevant education that each and every student deserves.

Vision

Los Angeles Unified will be the premier public school district by eliminating educational inequities to graduate ALL students ready for the world – to thrive in college, career, and life.

Theory of Action

When we:

- learn from our community and bring the lived experiences of our students and families into our planning
- support our teachers, leaders, and staff to deliver academically challenging, data-informed, and equity-driven education
- proactively collect, analyze, and share information that clearly defines where our students stand in terms of academics and social-emotional wellness, and
- align our actions and resources at every level of the organization to drive improvement in teaching and learning

Then:

- All Los Angeles Unified students will graduate READY FOR THE WORLD – to thrive in college, career, and life.

READY

The Strategic Plan

To effectively implement this Theory of Action, the District has proposed five high-level Pillars that represent critical areas we will focus on over the next four years. Each Pillar contains several Priorities we believe are required to successfully support the pillar, as well as Measures of Success and associated targets so we can gauge our progress in meeting our goals. Strategies are specific actions we can take at the school site or at the District and community levels to advance these priorities and help us meet our targets.

The five Pillars of the Strategic Plan are:

Academic Excellence

Joy and Wellness

Engagement and Collaboration

Operational Effectiveness

Investing in Staff

Pillars and Priorities

The elements outlined below reflect new and inspiring approaches we believe will best serve our students, as well as the proven work our educators, school leaders, and support staff have been doing over the last several years that we must continue to invest in and build upon. We have so many bright spots in our district of students, schools, and teachers who reflect the best of what Los Angeles Unified has to offer, and we will continue to find and elevate these exceptional people and practices. The strategies included in this plan will constantly evolve and adapt to exemplify the best in public education.

These elements are also not intended to stand alone but to be interconnected and to influence or support one another. While the priorities and strategies may be categorized in a particular area, each piece will work together in a coherent system to provide an exceptional education program to ensure all students graduate ready for the world.

We have so many bright spots in our district of students, schools, and teachers who reflect the best of what Los Angeles Unified has to offer, and we will continue to find and elevate these exceptional people and practices.

What's Next

Looking forward, there are several important pieces that will be put in place to ensure we fulfill our promise that all students are ready for the world.

- Implementation guide – The Strategic Plan outlines ways we will focus our efforts to achieve our goals, but there are more specific actions and practices that will be implemented in our schools and classrooms to help us move our priorities forward. These detailed actions will be included in a forthcoming Strategic Plan Implementation Guide designed for practitioners to support work in our schools.
- Ongoing engagement – Feedback from the Los Angeles Unified community was instrumental in developing our Strategic Plan. We must continue to engage all members of the community regularly and robustly over the next four years to ensure we remain on the right path for improving outcomes for all students.
- Alignment of systems – This plan is intended to help us organize our work and our resources. We must ensure that other District processes and systems are clearly aligned with this plan, including alignment with District budgets, our Local Control Accountability Plan (LCAP), reporting structures, professional development, and school-level plans for success.
- Progress monitoring – This plan includes measures and targets to help gauge our success in implementing the Strategic Plan, and it is imperative that we continue to monitor and share our progress so that we can improve and adapt our work to accelerate student achievement.

CALL TO ACTION

With this plan, we are committing to action now – our students cannot wait. We call upon you to help us ensure our students graduate ready for the world.

We must work together to elevate our students to achieve academic success, develop social-emotional resiliency, and embrace the joy of a positive and fulfilling school experience. Every member of our Los Angeles Unified community has a part to play in this effort, and we urge you to join us and commit to celebrating and supporting the work of this plan. Together, we will take our students to where they need to be, and we call on you to show up, step up, speak up on behalf of our students and in support of one another.

Through this plan and through our promise to each and every student, we can ensure all our young scholars will be ready to thrive and ready for the world, and we need you to act alongside us. Are YOU ready?

Thank You

We want to thank the entire Los Angeles Unified family for all the support, contributions, and inspiration that helped to produce the 2022-26 Strategic Plan. It is designed around the hopes and aspirations of everyone within our community, and we appreciate the opportunity to have collaborated with so many along the way.

We want to express our sincere gratitude to the Board of Education for offering direction and guidance on this plan. Because of their vision and tireless devotion to uplifting our students, we have been able to develop this coherent plan of action.
