

CALIFORNIA EDUCATORS:

FREE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS AT THE MUSEUM OF TOLERANCE

SIGN UP FOR TOOLS FOR TOLERANCE® FOR EDUCATORS

PROGRAMS ARE OFFERED IN 1 OR 2 DAY FORMATS. SET IN THE UNIQUE IMMERSIVE, LEARNING ENVIRONMENT OF THE MUSEUM OF TOLERANCE TO ADVANCE ANTI-BIAS EDUCATION AND CREATE INCLUSIVE AND EQUITABLE SCHOOLS.

PROGRAMS INCLUDE:

- Experiencing the Museum of Tolerance as a laboratory for human behavior
- Hearing personal testimonies from witnesses to history
- Engaging in facilitated discussions around issues that matter
- Participating in workshops customized to the group's goals by expert consultants (may include promoting a positive campus climate, Common Core through a social justice lens, teaching the Holocaust, media literacy, bullying prevention, restorative justice, and much more!)
- Lunch and resource materials
- Travel and hotel accommodations for out of town participants

"This program inspired and brought a call to action to our educators – we know that we can build off of this important work in our district and school communities."

– Esther Tokihiro, Santa Clara COE

Individuals may register for our special open enrollment institutes.

Groups of 30 participants or more may register for a customized program.

REGISTER NOW: www.museumoftolerance.com/FreePD

Eligible for LAUSD salary point (1) credit & graduate level extension credit from the University of San Diego.

All pre-K – 12 educators are welcome!

TOOLS FOR TOLERANCE® FOR EDUCATORS

9786 W. Pico Blvd, Los Angeles, CA 90035

phone: 310.772.7620

email: educators@museumoftolerance.com

Find us on:

