RE: Letter of Support for LAUSD Local District 5 PSC Proposal for CRES #17

Dear Los Angeles Unified School District:

As a Co-Founder and the Chief Achievement Officer of Synergy Charter Academy, a 2008 California Distinguished School, it is an honor to write this letter of support for LAUSD Local District 5 (LD5) and their Public School Choice (PSC) proposal for Central Region Elementary School (CRES) #17. As you know, starting in the 2010-2011 school year, Synergy will be co-located on the campus of CRES #17 as part of a partnership with LAUSD that is designed to eliminate the achievement gap for a greater number of students. We believe that LAUSD LD5 is the strongest applicant of the PSC proposals for CRES #17 and that they are the best-equipped applicant to partner with Synergy on the campus of CRES #17.

For the past four years, Synergy and LAUSD LD5 have been working diligently to create a best practices hybrid partnership on the campus of CRES #17 in order to share Synergy's academic success with the rest of the school district. Synergy, a proud LAUSD LD5 public charter school started by former LAUSD teachers, has helped its students reach levels of academic achievement that are unprecedented in historic South Central Los Angeles. Currently, Synergy's Academic Performance Index (API) score is 898, which places it in the top 10% of schools statewide, even though Synergy is located in a neighborhood where most schools are in the bottom 10% of schools statewide. Synergy has earned numerous awards over the years, including a 2008 California Distinguished School award, a 2009 Title I Academic Achievement Award, and a 2007 National Charter School of the Year award.

Both Synergy and LAUSD LD5 agree that this level of academic achievement should not just be the privilege of only the students on a single campus, but that it should be the right of all public school students on all campuses. For this reason, Synergy and LAUSD LD5 have been committed to this partnership in which both partners can learn best practices from each other for the benefit of all public school students.

Over the past four years, LAUSD LD5's commitment to eliminating the achievement gap has been evident. One can clearly sense that they are excited about working with Synergy to make CRES #17 a national model for education reform. Likewise, Synergy is excited about all that we will learn from LAUSD LD5, such as from their emphasis on music (especially jazz) and its impact on student achievement. It is clear to us that LAUSD LD5 is the best choice for a partner for CRES #17.

Sincerely,

The Harmony Project is an after school program that keeps at-risk youth safe, in school, and out of trouble. Developed by a Doctor of Public Health, Harmony Project promotes positive youth development through on-going year-round music lessons and the development of neighborhood youth orchestras. Our focus is on community.

The Harmony Project would like to develop a partnership with the Los Angeles Unified School District's Elementary School #17 in Local District 5 by providing professional teaching artists on a daily basis to teach instrumental students at this school. Our other existing partners provide partial funding and use of facilities, including: Los Angeles City College, the Los Angeles Philharmonic Association, Los Angeles Unified School District Beyond the Bell Branch, the Los Angeles Recreation and Parks Department's Expo Center, and the Los Angeles Mayor's Office of Gang Reduction and Youth Development.

Our mission is to build healthier communities through music, and this would be an exciting addition to the work that we already do. Harmony Project is unique in that it commits to students for their entire childhood, from early elementary school through high school graduation. We are aligned with the mission, philosophy, and vision of this exciting new innovative school and would like to support the academic and social success of the students in this community.

Superintendent

Dear Mr. Martinez:

After reviewing the vision and goals for Los Angeles Unified School District's Elementary School #17, the Thelonious Monk Institute of Jazz strongly supports this new, visionary educational approach and interdisciplinary instruction with jazz music.

As you may know, the Institute has provided a wide range of in-school and after-school jazz education programs for thousands of students in the Los Angeles Unified School District since 1995. The Institute is interested in expanding its partnership with LAUSD by working with Elementary School #17's students, teachers, and administrators to provide instructional, curricular, and professional development resources that will support student achievement at this pilot school.

We are especially interested in this project because it integrates into daily classrooms the rich history of jazz music along Los Angeles' Central Avenue corridor. Thelonious Monk, for whom the Institute is named, performed on the Avenue, as did many other jazz greats. Thus, Elementary School #17, in its capacity as a living jazz museum, would disseminate information about the contributions made by Monk and so many other major jazz artists to the Los Angeles jazz community. By learning about their community's significant role in the history and development of jazz, students will develop a deeper appreciation of their culture as well as other cultures within the neighborhood.

The Thelonious Monk Institute of Jazz looks forward to working with Local District 5, Los Angeles Unified School District. If you would like additional information or to discuss this project in greater depth, please do not hesitate to give us a call. We can be reached in our office at 202.364.7272 or on Tom's cell at 310.801.2920.

Dear Mr. Martinez:

Subject: Letter of Support for the Central Region Elementary School #17

This letter is to inform you that the All Peoples Christian Center fully supports the innovative educational program with an emphasis on music that honors the legacy of the Central Avenue Jazz corridor, and the outreach effort to the parents of the school and the community members in the area surrounding Central Region Elementary number 17. We believe that this education program will not only honor the legacy of Jazz in the community but it will also incorporate an excellent academic approach in the school's curriculum.

All Peoples Christian Center has existed in this community for over sixty-seven years promoting and supporting education and community empowerment. As a community agency, we are committed to providing assistance to the school, the students and the parents with information related to the programs available at our facility. The services we offer are the following: a day care, parenting and anger management classes, counseling services, a food distribution program, after school program for students first through high school, computer literacy, summer camp programs and a Retired Senior Volunteer program which places seniors 55 years and older with volunteer opportunities at non-profit and public institutions.

We look forward to partner with the school to increase the outreach efforts to those we serve and to promote academic excellence in the community.

Sincerely,

DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC
 2539 SCHOENBERG MUSIC BUILDING
 LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA 90095-1616

Dear Roberto Martinez:

I am writing in support of the interdisciplinary approach to instruction that is proposed for the new Elementary School #17 in the Los Angeles Unified School District. The creation of a K – 5 school, in which all students receive in-depth music instruction, would be a major step forward for Los Angeles. Music is a powerful form of human expression that can captivate young people and motivate them to high levels of achievement. The art form can also connect students to each other and to their communities in ways that lead to responsible citizenship. The idea of basing elementary curriculum on jazz is brilliant. This uniquely American art has a rich history that crosses cultures and can be used to promote learning in all academic disciplines.

The skills developed by learning music through jazz exceed those required in the traditional classical music curriculum. This form of music making encourages creativity by immersing students in improvisation and composition at the earliest stages of learning. Jazz promotes simultaneous instruction in singing as well as on an instrument. This is exceedingly important for the overall development of academic skills in young people. Recent brain studies demonstrate that active engagements with music influence other activities. In particular, speech and music share a number of cognitive processing systems. Carefully designed musical learning experiences enhance the brain's early encoding of linguistic sound. Learning to discriminate differences between tonal and rhythmic patterns through music instruction and to associate these with visual symbols seems to transfer to improved phonemic awareness. This impacts the perception of language which in turn facilitates learning to read. An elementary jazz based music curriculum would support the linguistic and reading processes so necessary for academic achievement. This will be important for students who come from non-English speaking families.

Music instruction also impacts personal and social development. With quality, standards based instruction, learning music can provide a sense of achievement, an increase in self-esteem, and help a child develop the self discipline necessary to persist when learning becomes difficult. Group music making promotes trust and respect between students and requires them to develop skills of negotiation and compromise. Increasing the amount of music within a school curriculum can enhance social cohesion and result in better social adjustment and more positive attitudes, particularly in low ability, disaffected pupils. These may increase the overall motivation for learning thereby supporting enhanced academic achievement in all disciplines.

An elementary school with a music based curriculum such as that proposed for Elementary School #17 would provide a number of unique opportunities for the arts education community. At UCLA we are always looking for schools modeling music curricula that is both sequential and standards based. Such a school would provide future music educators with an opportunity to experience meaningful professional preparation. Equally important, with the proposed curriculum and an administration that is knowledgeable in the field of arts education, this school could become an important location for training the teaching artists that organizations such the Music Center Education Division offer. This would improve the quality of instruction provided by those teaching artists who play a central role in the artistic experiences of children in schools throughout Los Angeles.

Please accept my whole hearted support for this endeavor. The UCLA Music Education program looks forward to partnering with Elementary School #17 in the implementation of this unique jazz based curriculum.

Sincerely,

Frank Heuser

| What changes will be made as a result of the evaluation? | Our school will need to re-evaluate our budget expenditures to determine how we can allocate sufficient funds for a Literacy Coach now that the District will no longer automatically allocate this position to schools. Our Literacy Coach has been instrumental in improving our teachers' instructional skills and their ability to better address specific student needs in the classroom based on data from the CST and the OCR Unit Assessments. Additionally, considering the fact that our EL's are at-risk of not meeting the mathematics AYP benchmarks for 2009-10, funding for a math coach, mathematics professional development for teachers and mathematics intervention services for students will be necessary. Finally, in an effort to provide specific and individualized intervention services for at-risk students, a Learning Lab intervention teacher would be necessary to provide services to students during the regular school day. |

ACTION PLAN

English/Language Arts—Elementary School

CPM: Teaching, Learning and Professional Development

The Goals have been provided as targets for guiding the actions and resources to improve student achievement in accordance with State and Federal guidelines. Based upon the relationship between the current instructional program and the conclusions drawn from the data analysis identify strategies/activities that are necessary to improve the school's English/language arts program. Schools are to use the District's "Periodic Assessments" on an on-going basis to monitor growth towards meeting LEA and AYP goals.

LEA Goals:

- All students will reach high standards, at a minimum attaining proficiency or better in English/language arts by 2013-14.
 - All students will graduate from high school.
- AMAO Goal:
70%+ of English learners will score in the appropriate performance range on the CST for English/language arts according to the District Progress Benchmarks for English learners.

AYP Goals:

- The percentage of students scoring proficient or above on the California Standards Test (CST) and the California Alternate Performance Assessment (CAPA) in English/language arts for 2009-10 will equal or exceed 56.8% and for 2010-11 will equal or exceed 67.6%.
- The school will achieve a 95% participation rate for all state assessments.

DIRECTIONS

Write the Key Findings based upon the school's data analysis for the subgroups.

In 2007-08, the following numerically significant sub-groups did not meet the AYP ELA target of 35.2%: School-wide, English learners, Hispanic/ Latinos, and Socio-economically Disadvantaged. An analysis of the 2007-08 CST data indicates that all numerically significant sub-groups are at risk of not meeting proficient targets in English language arts for 2008-09. Using the District's periodic assessments as a tool, a deeper analysis of student achievement indicates that students are struggling in reading comprehension and vocabulary. Looking at individual grade level performance on the Unit 2 OCR Assessment, the following proficiency rates exist: Grade 2 has 25% of the students at benchmark in reading comprehension and 25% proficient in vocabulary; Grade 3 has 32% of the students at benchmark in reading comprehension and 34% proficient in vocabulary; Grade 4 has 23% of the students at benchmark in reading comprehension and 23% proficient in vocabulary; Grade 5 has 29% of the students at benchmark in reading comprehension and 18% proficient in vocabulary.

Additionally, all numerically significant sub-groups met the 2007-08 mathematics proficiency benchmark. Looking at the 2008-09 targets, the school should meet the goal both school-wide and for the numerically significant sub-groups. However, when looking at the 2009-10 target, our EL's in grades 3-5 are at-risk of not meeting the AMO's in mathematics with an average CST proficiency rate of 27%. Furthermore, 4th and 5th grade students are performing significantly below the 2009-10 AYP benchmark. Using the District's periodic assessments as a tool, a deeper analysis of student achievement indicates that 4th grade students are struggling with standards NS 3.3: multiplication of multi-digit numbers and SDAP 1.3: interpretation of one- and two-variable data graphs. Grade 5 students are struggling with standards NS 1.2: the relationship between decimals, fractions and percentages and NS 2.4: multiplication and division of fractions. Looking at individual grade level performance on the Quarter 2 Math Assessment, the following proficiency rates exist: Grade 4 has 21% of the students at benchmark and Grade 5 has 21% of the students at benchmark.

Analyze the data provided from the School Performance Indicators and answer the questions to determine the Key Finding(s).

| Student Attendance | | Key Findings |
|--------------------------------------|--|---|
| Question | How has the rate of student attendance changed over time at the school? | The rate of student attendance has been stable over the past several years as indicated by the following data: 2005-06: 95.2% 2006-07: 95.3% 2007-08: 95.4%. Furthermore, our school's average student attendance is slightly higher than the District average. However, our attendance average does not meet the District's goal of 98%. |
| Suspension and Expulsion Data | | Key Findings |
| Questions | 1) How has the number of suspensions and expulsions increased or decreased over time? 2) How has the rate of suspensions and expulsions increased or decreased over time? | Our school's suspension number and rate have significantly decreased over the past several years as indicated by the following data: 2005-06: 22 suspensions at 2.6% rate ; 2006-07: 11 suspensions at 1.5% rate ; 2007-08: 8 suspensions at 1.2% rate. Our suspension number and rate is also significantly less than the District average. Our expulsion rate and number continue to be zero. |

This is higher than the District rate of 93%, but below the District's goal of 98% attendance rate per year for employees. | |

| | | Highly Qualified Teachers (HQT) | Key Findings |
| | | Questions | Key Findings |
| 1) | How will the school ensure that all teachers assigned to teach core academics are highly qualified? | It is the District's policy to hire highly qualified teachers in core academic areas in all schools. Each school site has the capability to hire teachers for their core academic subject areas. All schools are provided with listings of teachers who are fully credentialed or interns and are subject matter competent. Additionally, all schools work closely with their Personnel Specialist in order to fill vacancies with fully HQ teachers. The only instances when an HQT is not hired, is when the pool of such qualified candidates is exhausted, and only occurs in chronic shortage areas (i.e., science, math). | |
| 2) | Based on the school's HQT data, how will the school support all teachers to become highly qualified? | Each school has the capability to print a roster of all teachers with their HQ status. The principals are integrally involved in the advisement of teachers not yet compliant with NCLB. They refer them to the District's test preparation classes and actively participate in the HOUSSE process for "not new" teachers in order to make them highly qualified in accordance with the federal regulations. | |

| LEA Goal: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• All students will reach high standards, at a minimum attaining proficiency or better in English/language arts and mathematics by 2013-14.• All English learners will become proficient in English within 5 – 6 years of instruction.• All students will graduate from high school. | School Organization and Support Structure Goals: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• All schools will be organized to support the academic needs of students.• All schools will have effective support structures to address student needs that impact learning. |

DIRECTIONSWrite the Key Findings based upon the school's data analysis for the subgroups.

Our school data indicates a need to better support the academic needs of our students. To accomplish this goal, our school will restructure its internal organization to include Professional Learning Communities. Through this organizational structure our teachers and administrators will continuously seek and share learning and then act on what we have learned. The goal of our actions will be to enhance our effectiveness as professionals so that students benefit.

Our school is committed to implementing proper support structures to address our students' varied needs and to mitigate any issues that may negatively impact their learning. Our attendance rate has remained steady at 95% the past several years, but it does not meet the District's goal of 98%. Furthermore, although our transiency rate has declined significantly from 30% in 2003-2004 to 20% in 2007-2008, it remains high. Attendance is critical for student learning. Our school is committed to working collaboratively with parents to continuously improve our students' attendance and punctuality. A student's health and social/emotional well-being are also critical elements for school success. Our suspension rate has been reduced from 22 incidents in 2005-2006 to only 8 in 2007-2008. This reduction in suspension has led to a more positive school climate. Our school is a Second Step Model School and we have participated in the SolAR Grant for the past three years. Both of these programs have provided multiple opportunities for our students to receive counseling and conflict resolution strategies, which have improved students' peer relationships as well as reduced discipline related to defiance of adult authority figures.

PROGRAM IMPROVEMENT YEAR 4

School Restructuring Plan

Modification to the Single Plan for Student Achievement (SPSA)

The School Restructuring Plan is based on the following principles of restructuring: a major reorganization of the school's structure that makes fundamental reforms; substantial promise of enabling the school to make Annual Yearly Progress (AYP); and consistency with State law. The implementation of the plan, prepared by the School in collaboration with the Local District, is the shared responsibility of the School, Local District, and Central Office. This page documents the restructuring plan that the school will follow in 2008-2009 should it progress in PI status.

Directions: Select one or more Restructuring Options and check the appropriate box(es). Indicate whether a Compact will be used.

| <input type="checkbox"/> Enter into a contract with an outside entity to manage or provide guidance in the management and operation of the school. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Reopen the school as a charter school. Schools selecting this option will not complete a restructuring plan. Instead, the school will submit a charter proposal. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Implement major restructuring actions as written in the "School Organization and Support Structures" section of the SPSA that are consistent with the principles of restructuring. PROGRAM IMPROVEMENT YEAR 4
Modification to the Single Plan for Student Achievement

The School Restructuring Plan is based on the following principles of restructuring: a major reorganization of the school's structure that makes fundamental reforms; substantial promise of enabling the school to make Annual Yearly Progress (AYP); and consistency with State law. The implementation of the plan, prepared by the School in collaboration with the Local District, is the shared responsibility of the School, Local District, and Central Office. This page documents the restructuring plan that the school will follow in 2008-2009 should it progress in PI status.

Directions: Select one or more Restructuring Options and check the appropriate box(es). Indicate whether a Compact will be used.

- Enter into a contract with an outside entity to manage or provide guidance in the management and operation of the school.

Reopen the school as a charter school. Schools selecting this option will not complete a restructuring plan. Instead, the school will submit a charter proposal.

Implement major restructuring actions as written in the “School Organization and Support Structures” section of the SPSA that are consistent with the principles of restructuring. (Refer to the principles of restructuring above.) Indicate the major restructuring option(s):

High Priority Schools Grant (HPSG)

□ Quality Education Investment Act (QEIA)

Personalized Learning Environments for Middle Schools (PLEs) See Office of School Redesign Website

Will the school be using a Compact Agreement?

The School Restructuring Plan has been disseminated with stakeholders on the following dates:

School Administrators 5/20/08 Date

| PHASE | LESSON |

| Warm-up (10 minutes) | Students are seated in a circle facing the teacher <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Listen to this song “Wake Me Shake Me” and show me the steady beat by patting on your legs. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. You are going to clap hands with your neighbor in a moment but first let’s practice in the air. Follow me as I clap my hands together and then clap hands with a pretend partner. b. Turn & face your neighbor as your partner. Do these same movements while keeping the steady beat during the song. 2. What things do we do in the morning to get ready to go to school? Tell me first, then sing it to me. (Give an example to the students such as “Ist speaking then singing “I get out of bed”.) Who else would like to volunteer? (Choose a few other students) 3. If we speak the words to the song “Wake Me Shake Me” it is a poem. Poems are spoken and have rhyming words. 4. When we recite, that means we practice saying the words. It helps us to get better at remembering the words and our speaking. Please recite “Wake Me Shake Me” after me. Let me know if you can tell me where the steady beat is even though we are not singing. (Help students to discover that steady beat is there and can guide you when you are reciting a poem as well as when you are singing a song) 5. Rhymes help us to remember songs and poems because the rhyming words sound similar. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Let’s all say the poem together from memory while we listen for the rhyming words. (Children recite from memory) What are the rhyming words? 6. When you add the music, it becomes a song. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. The Rhythm of the words helps us to remember the song because it is a pattern that is easy to remember. Let’s all clap the rhythm of the words. (Guide students to clap the rhythm of the words) 7. The tune makes it easy to remember a song because we can think about what the notes sound like. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Let’s all hum the tune of “Wake Me Shake Me”. (Option : Instruct students to move their hands up and down to show which way the notes are going as they sing.) 8. Why is it important to use reciting and singing to remember? (Guide students in a discussion. It will help us . . .) |
| New Concept (15 minutes) | |
| Review/Application | 9. Now we are going to use what we just learned to memorize a new poem and song “Star Light Star Bright”. |

Let's all recite the poem together by memory. Now let's all sing the song together. 10. Who would like to volunteer to recite or to sing one of the songs we learned today. "Wake Me Shake Me" or "Star Light Star Bright". (Tell the students that if they sing alone, this is called a solo) 11. One way to practice memorizing our songs and poems is to use them when we are jumping rope. Let's all stand and pretend we have our ropes with us. Let's jump to the beat as we perform these two songs. |

| Warm-up (5 minutes) | 1. Sing using hand signals to show high and low, “Hello, everyone.” Students sing, “Hello, Ms (Mr) _____” Please Porridge 2. Guide students to sing the song and use hands to show the high and low sounds. 3. Sing in a high voice, “Can you sing a high note?” Students repeat. Sing in a low voice, “Can you sing a low note?” Students repeat. | |
| New Concept (15 minutes) | 4. Ask the essential question: How do we describe sound? Review what we know already about sound. Elicit prior knowledge from the children that sound can be described by volume (loud and soft). 6. “How else can we describe sound?” Various answers including high low. 7. “We can describe sound by its volume and by its pitch.” Define the terms volume (Loud and Soft) and pitch. (The highness and lowness of a sound) 8. Put out high and low resonator bells. Play each once. Ask the question, “Do they sound the same?” Add a middle bell. 9. “Why do they sound different? This is what we are going to explore today. Why do different objects produce different pitches?” | |
| Review/Application (15 minutes) | 10. Invite the students to test the sounds produced by tubes of different lengths in groups of five children. Remind the children of the question “Why do different objects produce different pitches?” 11. Tell the groups to prepare short oral presentations explaining what they have discovered. 12. Use the resonator bells to underscore the students discovery that pitch is related to length. (Show the difference in length between the bells and play them again to further reinforce the concept..) | |
| Assessment (15 minutes) | 13. Guide the children to use the tubes to play patterns of low, medium & high (3 tubes). (Ask one student to play. Ask the other four to respond, showing the highness and lowness with their bodies.) 14. Bring out five boomwhackers. Ask five children to arrange themselves according to pitch, high to low. | PHASE | LESSON |
|--------------------|---|
| Warm-up | Day 1 1. We'll begin today with an activity based on music elements. Your instruction is simply to make your hands move big and small according to the music that you hear. Please close your eyes while listening and moving to the music. (Teacher writes on the board: hands, big and small. Teacher plays 30 seconds of the Finale from “The River” a suite by Virgil Thompson CD 6 -13 in the Fifth Grade Making Music . (This is an instrumental piece with obvious short sections of loud and soft music.) 2. Continue with the activity but now open your eyes to see how your classmates are moving. (Leave the music playing for one more minute so the students can observe each other.) |
| New Concept | 3. A composer writes music to communicate ideas. When we hear music it inspires ideas in us. What did you hear in the music that determined when you would move your hands big or small? (Lead students to notice that the loudness and softness in the music was the music element most often chosen to guide the students as to when they would move their hands.) What are some examples that show that how each student moved their hands was unique to that student? (One student might have made their hands look like they were holding a big ball to indicate “big” while another student might hold both hands up to reflect what they felt was “big” in the music.) 4. How does music inspire ideas, mood and imagination? We are going to talk about two elements that a composer uses to communicate ideas and mood in music. dynamics describes the loudness and softness in music. tempo describes the speed of the music. 5. When you hear music at the movies, what is the connection between the elements, dynamics and tempo , and the moods and ideas that they inspire in the story? (Guide the students to make a connection between the music elements, mood, and ideas. i.e. slow-sad-leaving friends. See Chart) 6. We're now going to create a story based on elements in the music and the mood that they create. We are going to talk about what comes to mind when you listen to this music? a. Teacher encourages further discussion about setting , plot characters, ending and sequence. b. Teacher uses a graphic organizer to display student ideas. (See Chart of example) |
| Review/Application | 7. I'd like you to visualize a story while the music is replayed. Pay particular attention to how the dynamics and tempo elements in the music influence your story. (Teacher may option to give the students the opportunity to repeat the process on their own with 15 minutes) |

| (10 minutes) | Day 2 | 8. Write a rough draft of a narrative composition based on the ideas we have discussed today. |
| Assessment (25 minutes) | Day 2 | 9. Divide into pairs and discuss the elements of dynamics and tempo while the music is playing. 10. Work on your final draft. (While the students work on their final draft, the teacher speaks with each student individually to see if the student can show that their story is an appropriate match with the dynamics and tempo elements as well as the mood of the music.) |
| Closing (15 minutes) | | 11. Who would like to share their stories? (Teacher chooses a few students to share their stories) 12. Let’s listen to the music and reflect on the stories we have just heard as we listen. 13. Tell the students about the ideas the composer intended to communicate when they wrote the music. |
