

Teach English in Nagoya, Japan with LANSCA!

An Exciting Opportunity for LAUSD Teachers

CLICK OR SCAN
QR CODE FOR FULL DETAILS
AND TO APPLY

DEADLINE: MARCH 31, 2024

The Los Angeles-Nagoya, Japan Sister City Affiliation (LANSCA) is thrilled to announce a unique job opportunity for teachers within the LAUSD community. 2024 marks the 40th year of partnership between LAUSD and LANSCA!

LANSCA, established in 1959 under President Eisenhower's Citizens' International Exchange Program, promotes cultural exchange between Los Angeles and Nagoya.

Position

English Teacher at Meito Senior High School, Nagoya.
Summer 2024 - Summer 2026.

Location

Nagoya: Japan's vibrant fourth-largest city, between Tokyo and Osaka.

Requirements

- 3 years teaching experience.
- CA teaching credential, LAUSD permanent status.
- Commitment to a two-year stay.

Benefits

- Immersive cultural experience.
- Airfare reimbursement for participant.
- Health insurance for accompanying family members.
- Return rights to LAUSD.

Details

- Salary: Approx. ¥6,045,000/year (tax-free in most cases).
- Housing: Affordable apartment near school, $700/month, paid by participant.
- Duties: Teaching, curriculum development, collaboration. Mon-Fri, 8-5.
- Contract: Aug 1, 2024 - Jul 31, 2026.

Join LANSCA in promoting mutual understanding through educational exchange between Los Angeles and Nagoya! Apply now for this unique teaching opportunity.

Contact: LANSCAteacher@gmail.com

lansca.org

HR HUMAN RESOURCES DIVISION