For

English Learners and Standard English Learners

Featuring Keynote Speakers

Dr. Aída Walqui directs the Teacher Professional Development Program at WestEd and one of its signature initiatives, the Quality Teaching for English Learners (QTEL), focused on improving teacher and educational leadership ability to accelerate and deepen the linguistic and academic disciplinary achievement of English learners in American schools. In 2016, Dr. Walqui was selected as one of the 50 most influential researchers in the last 50 years in the field of English Language teaching.

Dr. Tyrone C. Howard is a professor in the Graduate School of Education and Information Studies at UCLA. Dr. Howard is also the inaugural director of the new UCLA Pritzker Center for Strengthening Children and Families, a campus wide consortium examining academic, mental health, and social emotional experiences and challenges for California's most vulnerable youth populations. Dr. Howard's research examines culture, race, teaching and learning.
