

Grades 3-12 Comprehensive ELD for PLTELS & LTELS with Disabilities

This 2-day Professional Development opportunity is a collaboration between the Multilingual and Multicultural Department and the Division of Special Education.

Through this professional development, participants will:

- Build an understanding of what is a Comprehensive ELD program
- Learn instructional strategies that address the needs of PLTELS & LTELS with disabilities
- Engage in instructional strategies that will help their students make progress towards Reclassification, meet their IEP learning goals, and address their language and content learning needs in the classroom
