Does the team's vision for the future of the school prepare my children to be career and college ready?	2	11	11	1
Does the team's plan address what my chil needs to learn to be at grade level and proficient to remain on track for high school graduation and prepared for career and college?	2	9	10	3
Comments: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Will there be a class or center to prepare my child to be career and college ready? -I'd like the school to involve the community more like community issues. This is a low income community of color and students must understand their community, themselves, and each other in order to create a culture of repsect and understanding of the world as a whole. - I hope that everything they promised becomes a reality/is accomplished. - They mentioned that the class sizes were about 30 students and it's ok, but I think the smaller the class the more a student would learn because they could get more help from the teacher but overall it sounds ok.
 2. Designing Data Driven & Student Centered Instructional Programs	Does Not Meet My Expectations	Partially Meets My Expectations	Meets My Expectations	Exceeds My Expectations

Does the team's plan use best practices and research to design programs and learning support services improve student achievement?	1	11	9	1

Comments:

- They should know how to apply to universities and how to survive in them once they are accepted.
- They students should learn how to apply to universities and have teachers help them in whatever they need help or support if they can.

 3. Instructional Program	Does Not Meet My Expectations	Partially Meets My Expectations	Meets My Expectations	Exceeds My Expectations
Does the PSC Applicant Team have a plan to help students with special learning needs? English Learners? Economically-disadvantaged? Gifted Students? Students with disabilities?	2	13	6	3

Comments:

- I like the idea of all inclusive curriculum. To be segregated by ability tells you the student I'm in a "low" level class because I am dumb so I don't need to work hard.
- They have different programs for students.
- There needs to be a better explanation of how to execute the plan for children with special needs despite the number of staff being cut.
- My commentary is that there are not teachers for children with special needs.
- I was not satisfied with the issue of children with special need. That is my worry.
