LAW AND RULES August 28, 2002

790 APPROVED ABSENCES FOR MANAGEMENT AND CONFIDENTIAL EMPLOYEES

- A. A regular management or confidential employee may be granted permission to be absent without loss of pay provided that
 - 1. the absence is for not more than half the employee's workday
 - 2. the responsible administrator is satisfied that good cause exists
 - 3. the work of the department is not materially retarded by the absence
 - 4. the privilege is not used repeatedly to reduce the employee's working time.
- B. Subject to the conditions of Paragraph A, numbers 2 through 4 above, regular employees shall be granted permission to be absent without loss of salary for not more than one full day for the purpose of obtaining a comprehensive annual physical examination not more than once a year provided that verification of such examination is submitted to the appropriate administrator.
